Times-Picayune (published as The Times-Picayune) - March 10, 2013 - page 30

"This is truly a tragic situation. Since his return from Iraq, this young man has struggled greatly to adjust and to recover from his experience." ST. TAMMANY SHERIFF JACK STRAIN

TAMMANY DEPUTIES SHOOT, KILL VETERAN

32-year-old was armed, officials say

War veteran Friday night after he allegedly ignored their command to drop his gun during a domestic disturbance, St. Tammany Sheriff Jack Strain said in a news release.

By Naomi Martin and Heather Nolan Saff writers

St. Tammany Parish sheriff's deputies fatally shot an Iraq

St. Tammany Parish sheriff's deputies fatally shot an Iraq

War veteran Friday night after he allegedly ignored their command to drop his gun during a domestic disturbance, St. Tammany Sheriff Jack Strain said in a lews release.

Jason Glover, 32, of Abita Springs died Saturday morning, Strain said.

Strain said.

St. Tammany Parish sheriff's deputies were called to Glover's residence at 28260 Louisina 485 at about 11 p.m. Glover from his experience." St. Tammany Parish sheriff's defice of the deputies arrived at the house, they found Glover sitting in his car outside the house.

As Glover got out of the eary deciled to house.

As Glover got out of the eary deciled to hear the negation has truggled greatly to adjust and to recover from his experience." St. Taken St. L. V. L.

NEW ORLEANS MARCHES IN CELEBRATION OF ST. JOSEPH

PHOTOS BY MICHAEL DEMOCKER / STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Traditionally dressed Florentine musicians march on Chartres Street during the Italian-American Marching Club's annual St. Joseph's Day Parade on Saturday. The Italian-American March Club hosted its annual St. Joseph's Day Parade in the French Quarter on Saturday. The parade included 18 floats, 11 marching bands

Anthony Ansaro Jr. and Queen Jordan Gilberti, plus honorees such as Maids shower the crowd with kisses during the St. Joseph's Day Parade though the French Quarter on Saturday. actor Frank Stallone, actor Vince Pastore and MORE PHOTOS AT (notal chef David Greco. ST. BERNARD

RESIDENTS

Meeting attendees share ideals

RESIDENTS

By Benjamin Alexander-Bloch
Staff writer

St. Bernard Parish residents on Saturday voted on improvements they'd like to see in their parish.

The public meeting was the second, and possibly last, before consultants prepare a draft comprehensive master plan that essentially is a

See ST. BERNARD, B-2

While about 200 people came to the first public meeting in December, only about 40 residents attended the Saturday session. That meant each participant represented about 1,000 of the parish's roughly 40,000 residents.

The cohort on Saturday voted that they'd like to see the parish move from one filled mostly with working-class and lower-income families to one made up of more working-class and middle-class families. They stated they'd like more shopping sibly last, before consultants prepare a draft comprehensive master plan that essentially is a

See ST. BERNARD, B-2

FED UP WITH TOLLS and didn't stop fighting

MICHAEL DEMOCKER/STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER
Mike Teachworth, founder of Stop the Tolls, spearheaded the court challenge that resulted in suspended tolls and a new vote. ik's never been about at 0 cents or $1. It's about fairness.

At least for now, a trip across the Crescent City Connection is toll free after Teachworth won an unprecedented ruling by Andrea this week that nullified the November referendum extending bridge tolls for 20 years. That decision also suspended toll collection and set a new vote on the issue in eight weeks.

But, Teachworth knows the fight isn't over yet. The nation's fifth-busiest bridge generated $22 million in tolls annually, the pot of money at the center of the 43-year-old killed in Gentilly shooting son came outside to hop into the man's red minivan, unaware that their lives were in danger, said the girlfriend's 59-year-old said the girlfriend's 59-year-old father, Byron Wright.

Suddenly, a gunman approached and opened fire, fatally wounding the man, police said. The girlfriend and her son ran up the porch stairs and dove onto her father's living room to floor. narrowly escape A 43-year-old man went shopping Friday evening, then stopped in Gentilly shortly before 8 p.m. to pick up his girlfriend at her father's house.

The girlfriend and her toddler on improvements they'd like to see in their parish.

The public meeting was the second, and possibly last, before consultants prepare a draft comprehensive master plan that essentially is a See ST. BERNARD, B-2

Consultants will have eight to 10 weeks to present the draft plan to the Planning Commission. A 43-year old man was shot multiple times while waiting for his girlfriend and her toddler son inside his minivan in the 3600 block of Frenchmen Street on Eriday.

© This entire service and/or content portions thereof are copyrighted by NewsBank and/or its content providers.

clad marchers, joined by Caesar 2013 Armando